DE LUNATICO INQUIRENDUM.—On yesterday Mayor Whitaker summoned a commission de lunatico inquirendo to consider the case of Sandy Iredehl, col'd, who has been pronounced insane by Dr. McKee.

GEN. BRADLEY T. JOHNSON.—This distinguished Confederate soldier, formerly of Maryland, but now of Richmond, Va., is still in the city a guest of the National Hotel. He was yesterday in attendance upon the stockholders' meeting of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, in which he fortunately has a large interest.

GEN. M. W. RANSOM.—We are more than pleased to record the gratifying intelligence of the convalescence of Senator Ransom. Though not entirely recovered from his recent severe attack, he reached this city yesterday evening en route to his appointments in the West, and will meet Gov. Vance in Asheville on Saturday next. Gen. Ransom will prove a tower of strength in the West that will build up our majorities even beyond our expectations, it is to be hoped.

Our county candidates report the prospect of carrying the county by a handsome majority as growing brighter every day.

We wish it to be distinctly understood that neither we, or the Committee of arrangements, attach any blame to Treasurer Churchill in being ousted out of the use of Metropolitan Hall Tuesday night. Those that know this gentleman, know him too well to believe he would stoop to a low act, and believe that he will perform his duty without fear, favor or affection.

THE BALL AT KITTRELL'S.

The ball at Kittrell's Springs on the 25th and 26th inst., is given by the proprietors of this famous Summer resort, in honor to our distinguished Senator, Gen. M. W. Ransom. We learn that every preparation is being made to render this the grandest affair of the season, and doubtless it will be largely attended. As the ball is given by the proprietors, of course no admission fee to the room will be charged. The Raleigh and Gaston Railroad sells excursion tickets to the Springs at all times during the season.

LIBERAL REPUBLICANS.

The following communication came in last evening too late for our editorial side:

Committee Rooms, Liberal Republicans, Raleigh, July 18, 1872.

The undersigned, members of the State Executive Committee, respectfully call the attention of all Liberal Republicans to the importance of electing the State ticket which is headed by the name of Hon. A. S. Merrimon. The moral effect of a victory now will be worth twice the vote of the State in November. In every respect the names presented by our Democratic Conservative friends, are more entitled to confidence than those on the Grant ticket. Let us hope that no friends of Greeley and Reform in National affairs will fail to give a hearty support to our allies in this first battle of the Campaign.

MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE RALEIGH & GASTON R. R. CO.

The stockholders assembled at the Company's office at 12 o'clock yesterday.

On motion of Dr. Hawkins, the Hon. B. F. Moore was called to the chair and Mr. Thomas Badger and Maj. W. W. Vass requested to act as Secretaries.

The committee to verify proxies reported 1,973 shares represented in person and 10,616 by proxies—total number of shares represented 12,589, being a very large majority of all the stock, and a full meeting.

The reports of the President, Superintendent, Treasurer, &c., were read and adopted.

A lengthy debate grew out of a resolution offered by Gen. Bradley T. Johnson, declaring that the surplus funds in hand, to the amount of $75,000 or 5 per cent. of the capital stock, be declared as once as a dividend among the stockholders, in which General Johnson, Mr. Batchelor, Capt. J. J. Davis, Major G. W. Grice, Maj. T. B. Venable, Mr. Cameron and Hon. B. F. Moore participated.

The following resolution was offered by Maj. Venable as a substitute and adopted:

Resolved, That the stockholders approve the action of the Board of Directors in not declaring a dividend for the past year.

The meeting then took a recess for half an hour and enjoyed a sumptuous repast provided by the officers of the road for the special benefit of the stockholders. The repast was heartily enjoyed and relished, though somewhat on the dry order, as nothing stronger than lemonade graced the festive board, though we did not go to the basement where we rather suspect there was something stronger.

On re-assembling, Mr. Moore in the Chair, Col. Venable offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Directors be authorized to use the surplus funds in improving the condition of the road and its equipments, and in creating a sinking fund by proper investment for the extinguishment of the debt of the company.

Gen. Johnson offered the following substitute to the resolution:

Resolved, That the President and Directors be directed to declare and pay forthwith a dividend of 5 per cent. on the capital stock of the Company.

Upon which substitute a stock vote was called, resulting in 733 voting in the affirmative, and 5014 in the negative.

The original resolution of Col. Venable was then passed by the same vote.

The committee consisting of Hon. B. F. Moore, Hon. W. H. Battle and Capt. J. J. Davis, to report upon the propriety and legality of an act passed by the last Legislature changing the mode of the election of President and Board of Directors, submitted a verbal report declaring that in their opinion it was inexpedient at this time to adopt said amendment.

A motion was made to adjourn till 1st Thursday in October. Adopted.

Y. M. G. & B. C.—The young Men's Greeley and Brown Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the Court House. A full and prompt attendance is desired as business of importance is to be transacted.

RADICAL AT KITTRELL'S.

THE COLORED MAN CROSS FOUND.

Proceedings in the U. S. Criminal Courts.

The colored man Cross, who was badly beaten by a mob of colored Grant Republicans on Tuesday night, and whose mysterious disappearance was reported yesterday, returned yesterday morning from his place of concealment and is now in the city. He says that after leaving the guard house, he sought refuge in Tucker Hall, where General Bradley T. Johnson and others were speaking. After the speaking, he knew it would be dangerous for him to go to his home as his life had been threatened by persons living in his neighborhood. He therefore went out in the woods where he remained all day Wednesday, actually afraid to show his head. He says he suffered much and is yet suffering from his wounds.

The trial of Shadrach Jones, for intimidating Simon Cravon, by threats and an assault, postponed till 10 o'clock yesterday was on the application of the defendant, continued till 11 o'clock this morning.

These outrages committed by the tools and instruments of worse men, here in the Metropolitan city of North Carolina on the eve of the State election is all for the effect of intimidating honest voters; to turn the tide of popular sentiment, that is rapidly gaining strength against the most corrupt party that ever ruled, but it will most assuredly recoil with double force upon the heads of its originators. Our colored friends have proven firm and true during the trying ordeal through which they have passed, and accessions are daily coming in the shape of good, honest, law-abiding colored men.

Commissioner Best yesterday evening issued warrants for the arrest of several of the parties engaged in the attempted assassination of Sam'l G. Cross, four of whom have been arrested by the deputy Marshals. A large number of Sopes have also been issued and it is confidently believed that an organized band of conspirators, bent upon the intimidation of colored Conservatives and Democrats, will be ferreted out, though the leaders will use all possible means to frustrate the regular course of law.

We admit that the law was not framed for catching Radicals and obstructions may impede its progress, but we do assert that men are now confined in the Albany penitentiary for the commission of crime, the enormity of which will not compare with the lawless acts of the band of conspirators who sought the life of Cross on Wilmington street Tuesday night. A colored Radical policeman told us that he was utterly powerless to defend Cross, and how he escaped death from the hands of his pursuers he was at a loss to see, that bricks, rocks, sticks, &c., were hurled at him as he entered the store on Wilmington street, and when he rushed to his assistance the crowd was so great he could not stop them.

And yet the Radical leaders laugh at the idea of these men being convicted, and are seemingly satisfied with their saving power and are willing to see these outrages continued. We are willing to submit to the law, and so long have we been used to oppression at the hands of our enemies we can stand it a little longer, so they don't cut too deep.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC CONSERVATIVE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.

In obedience to a resolution passed at Convention recently held in this County, authorizing the Executive Committee to fill all vacancies occurring upon the County ticket, J. R. NOWELL, Esq. of Marks Creek Township, is by said Committee appointed to fill the vacancy in the list of nominees for County Commissioners occasioned by the declination of Henry Mahler, Esq.

Geo. H. SNOW, Chairman Executive Committee of Wake County.

HONEY.—We are not an old dog, anything else, but we propose to enter an old dog Bee Hive, against any new patent hive that Syme, or any other "bees" may bring forward and prove the superiority of ours by its works.

Mr. Patrick Dolan, of Chatham county took from one hive, which was nothing more than an ordinary sugar barrel, two hundred pounds of very nice and choice honey. We saw and tasted a specimen of the honey which was white, clear and new as any we ever saw.

HORSE AND MULE MANGERS.

We have to add one more name to the already long list of horse starvers and beaters, he is a strange cross between an empty pair of old pants and an Egyptian mummy, by the name of Seth—be drives an old chestnut colored horse so poor that a newspaper could be read through him with ease. Let Seth, with his heartless companions, be passed around.

A RICH TREAT.—Our friend and neighbor Bradley, the confectioner, treated the entire News office, from "devil" up, to watermelons yesterday morning.

Bradley is one of the most enterprising men in his line in the city. He is always about the first in the market, keeps the best, sells reasonably, treats you politely and deals cleverly with all.

THAT "FOOTE" AFTER ALL.—The attention of the Biblical Recorder is called to the fact that Maj. J. H. Foote is the owner of a whiskey distillery in Western North Carolina. See the letter of our traveling correspondent.

"How is this for high?"—We yesterday saw a stalk of corn, grown by Mr. Billings, the caterer of the "National," which measured 27 1/2 feet in length—as has often been remarked before, "how is that for high?"

One hundred colored men have united in a letter to Mr. Sumner, praying his advice in the present political situation.

TRINITY COLLEGE.—The fall term of this College will commence August 14, 1872.

Dr. Craven, the venerable President of the College, has given to Trinity a reputation that will preclude the necessity of one word of comment from us. See the advertisement.

KITTRELL'S SPRINGS.—Our managing editor looked in upon "mine host" of this elegant watering place and summer resort yesterday, and was pleased to find that the season there bids fair to be both pleasant and profitable. A goodly number of visitors are daily arriving, and we learn from Maj. Black-nall that a sufficient number of persons have engaged rooms to fill almost his entire capacity.

JOSEPH H. SEPARK.—The Richmond Whig, in speaking of the prominent this gentleman has attained in the Mechanical world, says:

"It is a little singular that so many persons who attain greatness in various vocations should have made their start in life in Richmond."

Whereupon, the Petersburg Index takes it to be "rather cool, considering that Mr. Separk appears to have made his start in life in Petersburg."

DISSOLUTION.—We failed to notice a few days ago the advertisement announcing the dissolution of that popular firm of Druggists, Messrs. Doepf & Jones.

Mr. Doepf will continue the business as formerly, at the same stand, and asks the patronage of his old friends and the public, all which he is entitled to, and much of which he will receive.

PERSONAL.—Julius A. Bonitz, Esq. of the Goldsboro' Messenger was in the city Tuesday.

Senator Tipton is a Methodist minister.

Col. Robt. M. Cowan and family, of Wilmington, are in the city, the guests of Col. Strong.

Senator Doolittle is a pillar of the Missionary Baptist Church of Wisconsin, and an active member of the State Baptist Convention.

Rev. P. J. Caraway, President of the State Council of the Friends of Temperance, delivered an address on Temperance before a large audience at Commons Hall Tuesday evening.

THE RALEIGH BOOK AND STATIONERY TRADE.—There is no city in the South that has superior advantages to Raleigh as a book, periodical and paper market, and none considering the size that drives as large and as successful a trade in this line.

Alfred Williams, one of the pioneers of the city trade, advertises in to-day's issue, school books, stationery, &c.

This house is first-class in every particular and note for fair and square dealing. We can confidently commend the house to our country friends.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Elisha Blackwell, a colored boy in attempting to get on the passenger train of the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line Railroad at Lockville, had his foot dreadfully mangled by one of the wheels passing over it. He was brought to this city yesterday evening and placed under the medical care of Dr. E. Burke Haywood, Jr., and Geo. Little, amputated the limb near the ankle joint. The patient was doing well at the latest accounts.

SUPREME COURT.—The Court met yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, all the Justices present.

The following cases were disposed of: Doe on dem W. W. McCanless vs. H. W. Reynolds, from Stokes; argued: Phillips & Merrimon for plaintiff, Smith & Strong for defendant.

Thos. P. Johnston and wife vs. Thos. W. Haynes, from Rowan; argued: McKee for plaintiff, Bailey and Blackner for defendant.

Doe on dem Samuel H. Taylor vs. John D. Allen, from Stokes; argued: Morehead and Graves for plaintiff, Dillard & Smith and Gilmer and Strong for defendant.

D. H. Hill et al. vs. Commissioners of Forsythe; argued: Scales & Scales, Dillard & Gilmer for plaintiff, Clement & Masteen, and J. B. Batchelor for defendant.

Court then adjourned until 9 o'clock A. M. to-day (Friday).

RALEIGH, N. C., March, 1872

Mr. Stillman, Agent of "The Howe Sewing Machine,"

We have had your Machine in use in our family for four months, and can safely recommend it to the public for its simplicity, beauty as a piece of furniture, and as a "help" to those of us with large families. It is a "fine" machine. We have made with it, in addition to the usual household work, over one hundred garments, large and small, including Pants, Coats, Dresses, &c., some of which were heavily trimmed, two of the dresses containing from 100 to 125 yards of ticking. It is worked with much ease, requiring but little exertion. We would not be without one for three times its cost.

The Republican National Executive Committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon, which was executive in character, and for the most part secret. Measures were discussed for forwarding the canvass in Pennsylvania, Indiana, North Carolina and West Virginia.

Senator Abbott made a cheering report of the canvass in North Carolina. Col. Errett, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, appeared from Pennsylvania in place of W. H. Kemball, who is ill.

A suggestion was considered from West Virginia looking to the utilization of all elements in opposition to the Democratic Liberals, that State details for the campaign be organized within a few days at headquarters here.

A secret session of the Executive Council of the Union League of America, was also held in the afternoon, at which it was resolved to co-operate with the National Committee.

A prominent member of the German House of Representatives writes here confirming the news that Bismarck is to try to stop by legislation the great flow of emigration from Europe to this country, and characterizes the movement as stupid, saying the only way to prevent emigration is to afford the people some advantages they have here.

STATE MATTERS.

Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

WHITINGTON, N. C., July 15th, 1872. Mr. M. JONES, of Orange county, has declared himself an independent candidate for the House of Representatives.

Mrs. WILLIAM BARDEN, an estimable lady of Goldsboro, died Thursday of last week.

The treasurer of the Debating Club at Durham has absconded with all the funds, and the Club has been compelled to suspend for want of means.

The Reidsville Recorder says: The tobacco crop generally presents a handsome appearance, and a large reward will be repaid the coming season. We counted on one stalk 18 leaves, which is a general average everywhere, with few exceptions.

The Wilmington Journal says: A serious shooting difficulty occurred Tuesday evening at the Union Depot, between Wright Powell and Henry Austin, both colored, which resulted in the latter receiving a very serious wound.

SENATOR STOCKTON, on his return from North Carolina, reports the meeting at Weldon as unprecedentedly large and enthusiastic. His impression, derived from conference with gentlemen from all parts of the State, is that North Carolina will insure the State for Greeley in November beyond peradventure.

We learn that Mr. Charles J. Curtis, of Hillsboro, who is now in this city, has been called to the charge of St. Matthews church in Hillsboro, so long under the care of his lamented father, Rev. M. A. Curtis, D. D., lately deceased. Mr. Curtis has recently graduated at the General Theological Seminary in New York City, and is to be ordained a deacon of the Church at Hillsboro on the 8th of August, when he will accept the call tendered him.—Wilmington Journal.

We are informed by a friend that on last Saturday, the 13th inst., Mr. H. Crawford Lemmond, of Monroe, Union county, committed suicide at that place by taking Morphine. Mr. L. was a young man about 25 years of age, and until a short time since was merchandising in Monroe.

We also learn that before taking the fatal dose he wrote two letters, one to his brother and one to his mother, the contents of which had not been examined when our informant left. The circumstance has thrown a gloom over the little town.—Charlotte Observer.

GEN. M. W. RAMSON.—We regret exceedingly to learn that this distinguished citizen of North Carolina has been sick for some days. We sincerely hope he will soon be restored to his usual health. Gen. Ramson came to Raleigh to attend the Greeley and Brown ratification meeting, but was unable to be present. This we regret, as we know his eloquent voice would have given a peculiar interest to the occasion. The people of North Carolina delight to listen to his thoughtful and animated utterances. He is to go West in a day or two, to canvass with Gov. Vance, if his health should become sufficiently restored.—Sentinel.

Last Monday evening Mr. R. F. Morris, of this place, was very badly, but we hope not seriously, hurt by falling off the cars at the depot. He was standing on the steps of the rear coach, which had been detached, talking with a friend. The cars ran back against the coach, very suddenly, which threw him off, he falling backward across the track of the switch, was knocked senseless. He was taken back home by his friends and soon recovered sensibility. We learn he is recovering.—Durham Telegraph.

THE GOLDSBORO MESSENGER says: According to prior announcement, Hon. T. L. Clingman addressed the Court House in this place on Saturday. His arguments were lucid, bold and thoroughly convincing, and were attentively listened to by those present. The radicals, with whom the audience was interspersed, sat in gloomy silence, as his caustic but truthful accusations fell upon their guilty ears.

Judge E. Cantwell, one of the very first to display the secession cockade in 1861, attempted a reply, but only succeeded in making one of the most gigantic failures that ever excited the commiseration of a disappointed public. His exertions to justify the course pursued by his corrupt and pillaging party were astonishingly imbecile, and brought no impression whatever upon his hearers.

A SPECIAL to the Richmond (Va.) Dispatch, from Wilson, under date of Wednesday, says:

"The great Radical mass meeting here is a complete failure. Senators Wilson and Pool arrived last night, and were met at the depot by three white radicals and about a half dozen colored citizens with mute admiration. Not a cheer or martial note rent the air as in gloomy silence they entered the omnibus and wended their way to their hotel. One of their white friends declined the honor of riding with them. This morning it was expected that a large crowd of colored people would arrive on excursion trains, but not so. One excursion train from Tarboro brought about one hundred and fifty colored persons, who composed the majority of the visitors. The crowd was largest while Senator Wilson was speaking, and there could not have been more than five hundred people present. The Senator was severe on the Kuklux and Greeley, who, he says, demanded the passage of the act. He thinks the Democrats have stultified themselves by endorsing Greeley and the Cincinnati platform, yet he begs them to go over and vote for him and Grant, and save the country from the grasp of the rebels."

One hundred colored men have united

THE GUBERNATORIAL CAMPAIGN.

Judge Merrimon and Shipp at the grave of Gen. Jas. B. Gordon.

WILKESBORO, N. C., July 15th, 1872.

After the speaking at Yadkinville, on Friday, we came as far as Hamptonville, Yadkin county, on our way to this place, and became the guests of Col. A. C. Cowles, Democratic candidate for the Senate from the District composed of this county and Surry.

Next morning early, we commenced the ride to Wilkesboro, which is distant about twenty-eight miles from Yadkinville, and about twenty-one from Hamptonville.

This trip was decidedly the most interesting of any since we left Raleigh, on account of the mountain scenery. We travel for some distance in sight of the Brushy mountains, then cross them through a gap and continue our journey along their base for some miles. The most beautiful scene presented to us was, when, emerging from a road which was so thickly wooded, everything was observed in new sight, the Blue Ridge mountains rise up before us in all their grandeur. Although they were some distance from us, yet we had a most magnificent view of them. The scenery, we were told, is much more beautiful in Ashe county and it is matter of regret that we shall not have an opportunity of feasting our eyes on it.

We arrived at Wilkesboro late in the afternoon; Judge Merrimon becoming the guest of Col. W. H. H. Cowles, and Judge Shipp and your correspondent stopping at the hotel kept by that sterling gentleman Dr. C. L. Cook, Democratic Senator from this District in the last Legislature.

This is a small place, situated on a hill overlooking the Yadkin river, from which one has a fine view of the Brushy mountains which are very near, and of the Blue Ridge. Near here is Poor's Knob, said to be the highest peak of the former range, and I am told that from this point, there is the finest view of the whole Blue Ridge country which can be obtained anywhere. The Yadkin valley as seen from this place, is a beautiful scene of country and is as fine land as you will find anywhere. The great thing for this country would be a railroad, giving them an outlet for the immense quantity of grain and fruit which is annually produced in this section.

Yesterday, we visited the Episcopal burying ground, within which lie the remains of that gallant soldier, Gen. James B. Gordon, whose last resting-place is marked by a handsome monument. On one side is the following: "Brig. General James B. Gordon, born No. 2nd, 1822, died May 18th, 1864, of wounds received May 12th, 1864." Immediately above this is a wreath, and higher up, on the shaft, a sheathed sword.

On one side is the following inscription by one who knew him well and loved him devotedly: "Beneath this stone a hero martyr sleeps. Of all the offerings laid upon the altar of State sovereignty and constitutional liberty, there was none purer or nobler than that offered by James B. Gordon. Affable and courteous in his manners, generous and unselfish in his disposition, kind and indulgent in his nature, the name of this brave man is embalmed in the hearts of his countrymen, and by his courage and devotion he bequeathed to his kindred a legacy of more value than millions of gold and silver."

Col. W. M. Barber, of the 37th Regiment, who died of wounds received near Petersburg, on the 30th of September, 1864, is also buried here.

[Services were held yesterday (Sunday) in the Episcopal church, which we attended, and were rewarded by hearing a sermon from Rev. Mr. Barber, brother of the Colonel, of whom I have spoken above.

The people throughout this whole section of country are alive to the importance of the next election, and every county through which we have passed, will give a majority for Merrimon and the State ticket. The people are tired and disgusted with the extravagance, corruption and misrule of the Radical party, and turn their eyes to the Democrats to save them. There need be no fear of Wilkes. She will go solidly for our candidates, and I learn that Ashe, Alleghany and Watauga are certainly for Merrimon and our whole ticket. Roll on the ball, a bright day is about to dawn upon poor, downtrodden North Carolina.

About two hundred people assembled in the Court House to-day to hear the speeches of our candidates for Governor and Attorney General, and among the crowd we noticed that there were several ladies. The feelings of the audience were frequently manifested in rounds of applause.

Judge Merrimon, in his speech, spoke of the cause which he had to bring together the Democrats and Liberal Republicans on a common platform and to unite on Horace Greeley as their candidate for the Presidency. During his remarks on this subject he was frequently applauded.

The speeches of Judges Merrimon and Shipp had a fine effect, and will bring forth fruit at the August election. The Democratic candidates for the Senate from the 33rd District, composed of the counties of Wilkes, Alexander and Iredell, are T. A. Nicholson and Phineas Horton, and their opponents are J. H. Foote and T. N. Cooper. The Democrats, I am told, will be elected by a majority of from 800 to 1,000. Our candidates for this county are Dr. Tyrell York, a member of the last Legislature and who was re-nominated by acclamation, and Dr. R. F. Hackett. These gentlemen are opposed by T. J. Dula and Abram Bryant, Jr.

The Democrats are making a thorough canvass of the county and on the 30th of this month will have a grand barbecue at this place.

Your readers will remember Major James H. Foote as having been connected a short while since with the United States Marshal's office in your city. As I have stated above, he is one of the Republican candidates for the Senate from this District. A day or two since in Iredell county, at a place where the Sheriff was receiving taxes, he became involved in a difficulty under the following circumstances: It seems that Maj. Foote and the other party to the fight and which was to be distilled. Foote understood that his partners had made some remarks about the matter and on the day above alluded to, charged him with it, which the man denied. Foote gave the lie and reiterated his charge, which was met by a denial as before. The "d-n lie" was then given, when the party addressed, Richard Foote, (who was sitting down) was struck on the cheek.

These are the facts as they were given to me, and I hear Major Foote says the attack was unprovoked and that he was beset by a mob. Let your readers judge whether a mob or politics had anything to do with this difficulty. It was a private matter, nothing more, but of course the Radicals will charge it to the Kuklux, in the hope that party capital may be made.

We leave here in a short time for Trap Hill, where our candidates will speak to-morrow.

GEN. CLINGMAN'S APPOINTMENTS.

Gen. T. L. Clingman will address his fellow-citizens at the several points stated below. His brigade was largely made up from some of these counties—a brigade which, while under his command for nearly three years, was in many arduous engagements, never broke in battle, and never failed to do its full duty in the hour of trial.

The General hopes to meet as many of his old comrades as may find it convenient to come out to the appointments indicated.

A CARD.

To the people of North Carolina:

In view of the approaching election, and my present relation to them, I deem it worth while to inform the people that my attention has been called to a scurrilous and libelous paper, extensively circulated in this State, entitled "Read and Circulate."

This paper is anonymous, and does not purport to have the sanction of any Editor, Publisher, political Committee or any body, but it is sent to the people under the Congressional frank of Hon. John Pool United States Senator.

It appropriately makes its first appearance in an obscure weekly paper, published in Washington City, called the "National New Era," edited by a negro named Fred Douglass.

The circular is infamously false, scandalous, and criminal. It imputes to me and other gentlemen, some on and others off the Democratic Conservative ticket for this State, the most infamous crimes against society and individuals, and it is so false, wanton and criminal, that it is not surprising that it is sent out to accomplish what evil it may without apparent sanction of, or attaching amenability to, any one.

It is so monstrously false and scandalous that I was amazed to learn that it was sent out to the people under the frank of Mr. Pool, and I therefore enquired of him, by letter, if it was so sent with his knowledge and consent. He informed me it was, but says it is a "rehash of newspaper articles." It is indeed a "rehash" made up in such an artful way as to charge in terms, by suggestion, artful argumentation, and innuendo against me and others, the most disreputable crimes and conduct against the people and State; and it illustrates a species of desperate and disreputable parizan warfare that can not be tolerated, much less justified, among a civilized people; nor do I believe the people of this State of any political party will do so.

So far as I am informed the Radical papers of the State, fruitful as they have been of misrepresentation and falsehood have not republished it.

I deem it due to the people and myself to say for the benefit of any such as might be misled by it, that in so far as it refers to myself the paper is in every material respect absolutely FALSE, SCANDALOUS, and LIBELOUS, and I believe it is so in reference to the other gentlemen assailed.

In vindication of myself against this wanton attack, it is my purpose to bring suit against Pool, in the Superior Court of Wake, reserving to myself to take such other steps in the future as may be deemed proper.

I am more than willing that the truth shall be ascertained by a judicial tribunal for the better satisfaction of the public, and to the end, that professional politicians may learn that they cannot assail innocent men in such a savage way with impunity, I will give Mr. Pool the opportunity to make good the charges in the anonymous paper, if he can do so.

It has been suggested that such publications are legitimate in political contests like the present. This may be so according to the code of morals of a class of desperate political adventurers, but it is not so, in my judgment, among gentlemen, or a civilized and virtuous community. Nor do I believe the people of North Carolina of any party will endorse such shameless and groundless assaults upon innocent men, because they happen to be put forward by hundreds of their fellow-men for high, responsible and honorable offices.

The paper referred to is a base and criminal prostitution of the freedom of the press to accomplish the base purposes of deceiving and misleading the popular mind. This good and patriotic paper will not do, and the people of all classes may well distrust those who attempt it.

FOR SALE.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE IN THE COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (522) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shocco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing Town of Ridgeaway, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Overseer's house, three cabins, corn-cribs and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (1/4) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, etc., one-fifth in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, lean and choicely adapted to the growing of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, etc. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

LOUISBURG, June 12th, 1872. R. FERRY.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel. 2d. No extra charge on Lives of Females. 3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years.

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are known to be men of INTEGRITY and SINCERITY.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, having been called to increase the Capital Stock to $2,000,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of thousands of Dollars in Life Premiums are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

CHANGE.

Has summer come without the rose,
Or left the bird behind?
Is the blue changed above thee,
O world, or am I blind?
Will you change every flower that grows,
Or only change this spot,
Where she who says I love thee,
Now says, I love thee not?
Be false or fair above me;
Come back with any face,
Summer, do I want you do?
You cannot change one place—
The grass, the leaves, the earth, the dew,
The grave, I mark the spot,
Here where she used to love me,
Here where she loves me not.
